Helvetica Light

Details

Dude did you do Macks homework cause I totally just didnt do it haha my bad I didnt text back cop is behind me right now.

Bro I found this dope font, it's called helvetica light created in 1981. A kinda sub font of the original Helvetica created by Max Miedinger in 1957.

Today 11:30 AM

Yeah man it was first called Haas-Grotesk, well I guess it could just be in German. But in 1981 Helvetica Light was created and ever since Apple company was created they have been using it.
